Order from the British Exchequer to the London
Branch Office of the YOKOHAMA Specie Bank.

In accordance to II (A) of the National Defense (Finance) Regulations the Exchequer has the right to issue special orders prohibiting absolutely or within the limits stipulated in the special orders concerned, the carrying out of orders given by the persons designated below or their agencies, except when permission is given by the Exchequer or its agencies.

The designated persons are:-

(A) Countries designated, rulers and residents of the countries designated, and

(B) Juridical persons or bodies established by the laws of any of the designated countries or managed under the control or rule of any of the said countries, or juridical persons or bodies of the rulers or residents of the said countries,

To carry out orders "in behalf of" or "under the direction of" a person coming under the purview of any of the above-designated statuses and for the following is prohibited:

- (1) To pay, to deal in gold, or in bills and bonds, and
- (2) To make any changes which will credit any person under the purview of the above designation with any sum of money, whatever the amount, or, by which any gold or bonds will be held in sub^Vscri^Aption to the orders of any person above designated.

Accordingly, the Exchequer, in pursuance of the above mentioned right and other rights, notifies the London Branch office of the YOKOHAMA Specie Bank that the said Branch office is prohibited, except when permission is given according to or accompanying this order, to carry out orders "under the direction of" or "in behalf of" any of the countries designated below, or rulers or residents of the same, or juridical persons or bodies established by the laws or managed under the control of the said countries, and thereby violate 1 & 2, (A) II and particularly (B) of the above-mentioned National Defense (Finance) Regulations. The countries designated are the Japanese Empire (including Japan Proper, Korea, Formosa, Kwantung, and the South Seas Mandated Islands). Manchuria and China. It is further notified that the London Branch Office of the same Bank is given inclusive permission for the following cases:

- A. (a) Payment of checks
- (b) Acceptance of bills.

Drawn by any of the above-designated persons, on their

Def. Doc. #1706

presentation by or in behalf of the persons receiving the same before July 27.

B. Acceptance of money to the account of any of the above-designated countries, individuals, juridical persons and bodies, and keeping of credit accounts for any of these persons.

However, transactions forbidden by the following laws, orders and regulations shall be prohibited as before.

(1) The Law of 1938 prohibiting transactions with enemy nationals.

(2) Orders based on the above law prohibiting transactions with enemy nationals.

(3) The rest of the National Defense (Finance) Regulations.
